THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO PRESS

1982. Journal of Interpersonal Violence, 1, 179-187. This article describes the characteristics of the battered women who seek help from the police. The authors found that battered women who seek help from the police are more likely to be in a violent relationship, to have a history of physical assault, and to have a history of psychological abuse. They also found that battered women who seek help from the police are more likely to be in a violent relationship, to have a history of physical assault, and to have a history of psychological abuse. The authors conclude that battered women who seek help from the police are more likely to be in a violent relationship, to have a history of physical assault, and to have a history of psychological abuse.

While the Chinese people are not yet free, the Chinese government is not yet free. The Chinese people are not yet free to express their opinions, to criticize the government, to demand reform, to demand democracy, to demand freedom, to demand justice, to demand peace, to demand happiness, to demand a better life, to demand a better future, to demand a better world. The Chinese people are not yet free to live in a free society, to live in a free world, to live in a free universe.

FORMER SENATOR IS HELD

CHARGE OF DESIGN TO CHEAT LOADED AGAINST NEW YORKER

CLAIM IS MADE THAT FRANK GARDNER OBTAINED THE SIG-NATURE OF AGED MIL-LIONAIRE TO WILL.

NEW YORK, Feb. 19.—Former State Senator Frank Gardner, once accused of bribery in connection with the anti-race track legislation in this state, was held in jail today in Brooklyn, charged with design to cheat by having obtained the signature of Samuel Hazzel, an aged millionaire, to a will by which the right heirs would have been defeated.

George Decker, a nurse for the aged millionaire, has also been arrested.

Gardner is the man for whom the state authorities were searching last winter at the same time Charles H.
Hays was discovered hiding in a house in Florida. Both were wanted at that time because of the investigation of the race track bribery scandal.

NATIONAL ORANGE SHOW ON WITH INTERESTING FEATURES

FLORIDA AND LOUISIANA FRUIT ON EXHIBITION AT BIG SHOW OPENED IN LOS ANGELES TO-DAY.

SAN BERNARDINO, Cal., Feb. 19.— An excellent reproduction of the Pomona Canal and Canal Zone, made of big golden oranges, is one of the most striking features of the annual National Orange Show, which opened here today. A copy of one of the famous California citrus and a representative of a fast fruit express train from locomotive to ca-ribone, are also included among the sumptuous and realistic attractions, and were the centers of attraction to the thousands who crowded into the exhibition when the gates were opened this afternoon.

Over 30 carloads of specimens of the finest citrus fruit grown during the last year are on exhibition, a number of the displays having been sent from groves in Florida and Louisiana. A complete and realistic irrigation system proved to be a big attraction to the opening day crowd as did a packing house in full operation.
Prizes awarded to the exhibitors will include purses of cash, loving cups, plaques and banners.

urer who recently disappeared and is said to be short nearly $200,000, received a letter from Shaw today.
It was postmarked Savannah, Ga., and the letter was most affectionate.
The writer urged the woman to join him in Savannah and suggested that they go to Brazil.

FIRST CARRIER RESPONSIBLE FOR SHIPMENTS ACCEPTED

ANOTHER ATTEMPT OF RAIL-ROADS TO EVADE AMENDMENT TO THE INTERSTATE COM-MERCE LAW HAS FAILED.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—Another attempt by the railroads to evade the Carmack amendment to the interstate commerce law holding initial carriers responsible for shipments over two or more connecting lines, failed today before the supreme court, which delivered an opinion in favor of I. D. Crow.

Mr. Crow, a resident of northern Texas, turned over to the Galveston, Harrisburg & San Antonio railway a quantity of mohair for shipment to Lowell, Miss. The freight never reached its destination, and, in accordance with the provisions of the Carmack amendment to the interstate commerce law, which holds the initial carrier responsible irrespective of the number of connecting carriers through whose hands the shipment must pass. Crow sued the railroad. He was awarded damages for the loss alleged to have been sustained. Whereupon, the railroad appealed the decision. Appeal was allowed and the case was put before the supreme court.

MOBILE Ala., Feb. 19.—With a laugh on his lips Lawrence Odom, a wealthy stock raiser was hanged in the Mobile jail yard this morning for a triple murder.

Odom scoffed at those who tried to convert him and laughed con-temptuously when the fear of death was mentioned.
Odom killed Charles Goland and David Hartman, two young men, and Joseph Stokes, an aged farmer, last March. The three men were witnesses against him in a dog killing case. The murders of the three men were most brutal.

DEATH COMES TO RELIEF OF WM. RUGER

END COMES SATURDAY NIGHT AT HOME ON SILVER BEACH

FUNERAL SERVICES HELD SUN-DAY AND REMAINS ARE TAK-EN TO CHICAGO BY REV. F. J.
LONGDON.

William Ruger, who has been a resident of this vicinity for many years, died Saturday evening at his home, after a long illness. Funeral services were held at his Silver Beach home Sunday, conducted by Dr. Marsh, and the remains have been taken by his son-in-law, Rev.
F. J. Longdon to Chicago for interment in Graceland cemetery, beside the body of an infant daughter.

Mr. Ruger, who was 68 years of age, was a Canadian by birth, but was reared in this country. His business life was spent chiefly in Chicago as a prosperous lumber merchant. He is survived by his wife and two daughters, Mrs. J. F. Long-don and Miss Minnie Selden Ruger, all of whom were with him during his last hours as was also his son-in-law, Rev. F. J. Longdon, of De-Land.

Mr. Ruger has been a resident of this place for nearly 20 years, having purchased property at Silver Beach, now included in Daytona Beach, in 1894, where he has since resided with his family. He had previously spent several seasons in Ormond and this place. He has been in declining health for some time and has been failing more rapidly of late. The sympathy of many friends here and elsewhere will be extended to Mrs. Ruger and daughters in their bereavement.

Mr. Ruger served in the Civil war in the 74th Illinois regiment, commanded by Col. Jason Marsh, and after the war married the daughter of Col. Marsh.

TIME FOR KNOX VISIT INOPORTUNE

SAYS COLUMBIAN MINISTER IN A LETTER TO SECRETARY

CONGRESSMAN RAINEY DE-CLARES OUR CONDUCT TO-WARD COLOMBIA IS BLACKEST PAGE IN OUR HISTORY.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—"Our conduct toward Colombia regarding the Panama affair is the blackest page in the history of our nation," declared Representative Rainey of Illinois today, in commenting on the letter of Colombian Minister Os-pin to Secretary Knox, telling Mr.
Knox the present is a very "inoportune" time for the secretary of state to visit Colombia.

"If we had treated any great world power as outrageously as we have Colombia," declared Mr. Rainey, "we would have been involved in a great war."

Rainey has a resolution pending in the house for a congressional investigation of the acquisition of the Panama canal. Definite action by the state department concerning the Ospina letter is expected by tomorrow. The letter is viewed in many quarters as an insult to Secretary Knox.

BLIND NEGRO HEAVILY FINED FOR OPERATING BLIND TIGER

ASSESSED $50 AND COSTS FOR CONDUCTING "SPEAK EASY" IN MIDWAY AND OTHER CASES WILL FOLLOW.

Richard Braswell, a blind negro resident of Midway, was fined $50 and costs or take a sentence of 60 days at hard labor on the streets, in the court of Mayor Tusk this morning. Several witnesses were examined in connection with the case and sufficient evidence was gleaned by the court to insure there will be more cases of the kind to follow within a few days.

Patrick Grant 2nd, white, was fined $2 and costs for riding his bicycle on the sidewalk.

Maggie Dickerson and E. Abel Washington, both colored, were fined $3 and costs on a charge of disorderly conduct and fighting.

Paul Jenkins, colored, has been arrested on a charge of stealing chickens and will appear in the mayor's court to answer the charge tomorrow morning.

under protest as a franchise tax.
The court held the company could not recover.

KELLY BACK DOING STUNTS AS CONVICT

AGAIN AT OLD PLACE IN CAMP ON DAYTONA-DELAND ROAD

TALKS FREELY ABOUT HIS ES-CAPE AND SAYS HE FULLY IN-TENDED TO KILL THE GUARD WHO HELPED HIM ESCAPE.

J. M. Kelly, the life term convict who made his escape from the camp of the DeLeon Naval Stores company on the Daytona-DeLand road November 25, is back in the camp again performing the same work he was doing before he made his escape.

Kelly was arrested in Santiago, Cuba, January 17 as a Federal prisoner and brought back to Jackso-ville by Detective Crawford. At Jacksonville he was turned over to Capt. Brooks of the convict camp of the DeLeon Naval Stores company and brought back to DeLand to complete the term of the contract for his services which the company holds with the state.

Since his return to the camp, situated about seven miles this side of DeLand, Kelly talks freely about his escape and the experiences he has had since he left the camp. He says he fully intended to kill the guard, J. Henry Smith, who helped him to escape, before the pair ever got out of Volusia county, and regrets now that he did not go to one of the South American countries, where there would have been less chance of detection.

Kelly admits the escape was planned before it was carried out.
He says Smith was his friend and they worked out the details of the escape together. He says he promised Smith nothing, but told him he had formerly been a locomotive engineer and that as soon as they could reach a shipping port they would take a boat for some foreign country, where Kelly would get a job as an engineer, taking Smith as fireman, and that eventually Smith could work up to be an engineer, making $150 per month instead of the $25 and board he was receiving as a guard.

Smith as guard had charge of a gang working in a different place from the gang of convicts in which Kelly was employed, and it was agreed that at a certain time on a certain day both should pretend illnesses. The result was that Smith was ordered to take Kelly back to camp, and they both started, but cut through the woods instead of going to camp.

Smith wore two suits of clothes, carried a loaded rifle and $200 in money. After they had got well into the woods Kelly removed his prisoner's garb, donned one of the two suits which Smith wore and made the guard give him the $200 and the rifle. Kelly freely admits that he fully intended to kill Smith before they left Volusia county, but says that Smith was such an innocent, unsophisticated fool he didn't have the heart to do the deed, so he kept him as company until they reached Key West, when Kelly told Smith he would have no more to do with him (Smith) and that the ex-guard should consider himself lucky to be alive.

Kelly says it was here he made a mistake by taking a boat for Cuba instead of arranging to go to South America. However, he went to Havana and then to Santiago, where he got a job on a dredge boat. Later Smith was located in Key West and brought back to DeLand and because of the way he had been treated by

PASTOR RUSSELL IN CALCUTTA.

Investigation of Missions in India in Progress.

Juggernaut and the Ganges Visited.
Investigation Committee Go Next to Benares, Burning Ghats, Agra, Etc.
Pastor Russell Addressed Large Audiences in Calcutta.

Calcutta, Feb. 18.—The foreign Missions Investigation Committee, appointed by the International Bible Students Association, is here. The Committee expedite their work by each member giving special attention to a different feature of the investigation. This is their third week in India and they have already traveled nearly two thousand miles. They are keenly interested in the heathen and in the Bible, but they declined to give in advance any hint of what their report will be as respects the missionary work here.

Pastor Russell, Chairman of the Committee, preached twice to-day to large and attentive audiences in our finest auditorium. One of his addresses, from Jeremiah ix. 23, 24, we report. He said:—

Your "City of Palaces" greatly impresses me, as doubtless it does all who visit it. But as I look at its splendor I am reminded of that portion of my text which declares, "Let him that glorieth glory in this, that he understandeth and knoweth Me, that I am the Lord, which exerciseth loving kindness, judgment and righteousness in the earth." Wherever we go we perceive that man, by virtue of his creation, is a worshipper.

I stopped enroute at Juggernaut; the very name called up the stories of my childhood which so greatly aroused my sympathies for the poor heathen. Missionary reports told of how in ignorance the natives would throw themselves before the great Car of Juggernaut, feeling it an honor to thus sacrifice their lives. And now, here am I on the Ganges River, of which in childhood I heard so much that thrilled my heart with sympathy—how mothers threw their babes into the Ganges, not because they had no sympathy with their offspring, but because they desired to sacrifice to and propitiate their gods.

"Now We Know In Part."
Now that I am here I do thank God that, although the heathen have not been converted to a true knowledge of the great Jehovah, they have, nevertheless, come under the strong hand of the British Government, which, whatever its defects, seeks at least to protect its subjects from the extremes of their own ignorance and superstition.

St. Paul wrote, "Now we know in part, but then we shall know even as also we are known." (I Cor. xiii. 12.) Alas! How every true Christian must realize how his own knowledge of God and that of his forefathers has so slightly exceeded the knowledge of the heathen, that he found it difficult to "glory" in his understanding of God. Only those who are adherents to the declarations of the Bible that "God is Love," that His mercy endureth ever, that He is like a pitying father, that He is a God of All Grace, the Father of Mercies, whose loving kindness we cannot measure—only such have the assurance which enable them to offset the horrible theories of our creeds formulated in a darker past, and which told us more horrible things respecting our God and His treatment of mankind than our poor heathen brethren ever imagined.

But now the better day is dawning! We are seeing the glorious outlines of the Divine character in the Divine Plan as never before! Our hearts first led the way and rebelled against the dictum of our fallacious reasoning. And now, in God's due time, when nature is yielding up her secrets and chemistry is making the world anew, behold the key to the Divine Word is thrust into our hands, unlocking its mysteries and explaining its parabolic symbols to our astonished faith!

Knowing Our God.
Our Redeemer declared, "This is life eternal, that they might know Thee, the only true and living God, and Jesus Christ, whom Thou hast sent." Evidently the great Teacher had in mind the thought of our text—not merely a knowledge about God, but an acquaintance with Him, such as can come only through a fellowship of spirit and an understanding of the Divine Program.

In our blindness of the past, assuming that all the non-elect would be consigned to an eternity of torture, we published in our missionary reports that ninety thousand every day go down into death, into Christless graves—and, by inference, into eternal torture.

Now we read God's character in fairer lines. Now we perceive that for a thousand years, the Elect, on the heavenly plane, invisible to men, "like unto the angels," will live and reign with Christ (Rev. xx. 4) for the blessing of the non-elect—for their uplifting from conditions of sin and imperfection back to the glorious heights of the Kingdom of God in the flesh.

Not Malicious.
Hewitt—Gruet isn't a malicious person. Jewett—No; he's a well-meaning liar.

Willing to Oblige.
"I want recognition as a taxpayer," said the irate citizen. "All right," said the municipal boss; "we'll send the assessor around to see you again."

His heart was as great as the world, but there was no room in it to hold the memory of a wrong.—Emerson.

POLICE OF BERLIN.

Each One is a Sort of Czar on His Own Limited Beat.

EVERY PERSON IS WATCHED.

Where a Man Works, How He Amuses Himself and the Way He Behaves It is the Officer's Business to Know. The Civil Service System.

"When you arrive at a railway station in Berlin," said a professional man who spent a year in Berlin, "you are not surrounded by a clamoring crowd of cab drivers, some of whom a stranger would be foolish to trust. You tell a policeman what you want—whether a cab or a porter—and he gives you a number. When you emerge from the station a uniformed governmental employee, either cab driver or porter, stands at attention and salutes you in a military manner. He has been ordered for you by the policeman inside, and when he presents his number, corresponding to the one the policeman gave you, you can trust him to take you or your luggage wherever it is to go. The government is responsible for the safe arrival of yourself and your luggage at hotel or other destination. If the porter should run away with your belongings the government would reimburse you.

"The police system is wonderful. The officers carry no revolvers or clubs, only swords. Each one has only a small beat to cover—a couple of blocks or so—that he has time to be the monitor of the moral conduct of every person in his district. He knows exactly what each person is doing, where he is working, how he is spending his leisure time and whether he is behaving himself. There is very little crime, and the police courts have little business.

"If you commit an offense you are not dragged off to a police station. Instead, your name and address are taken by the officer in the district, and the next day a letter informs you that you have been fined an amount in keeping with the character of your offense. You are told that you either can send the money by messenger or appear at the prefect's office for trial at a certain time. It doesn't pay to give a policeman a wrong address either, because the system is so perfect that they will find you anyway and fine you more.

"The policemen are instructed to prevent infractions of the law, not to wait for persons to get into trouble and then arrest them. Each policeman has such a small district to cover that you can find one whenever you want one. He sees that his district is kept clean, that each house in it is sanitary and that each resident gets fair treatment from his neighbor. Disputes are settled with no thought of appeal before they ever get to the police station.

"Soon after I arrived I was on my way to the university one morning and saw a policeman at a cab stand examining the hoofs and backs of the horses, the harness and the cushions and wheels of the cabs.

"What are you doing?" I asked him politely.

"As a representative of my government," he replied, "I am inspecting to see that the passengers of these cabs are assured a safe journey with them. The government is responsible, you know, and it is my duty to see that all dangers and possibilities of discomforts are eliminated.

"His answer was given in a most courteous manner.

"There are no paupers in Germany. Everybody pays as he goes. You can see the result in the independent manner of even the street sweeper. He knows he shall be provided for in case he encounters adversity.

"For instance, suppose a lamplighter or a bootblack becomes ill or suffers an accident. By the way, the bootblacks of Berlin do a thriving business because not a man, from street sweeper up to banker, would think of appearing on the street of a morning without having his shoes shined. If such a lowly worker becomes disabled the government association of his district gives him a certificate to any physician for whom he may have a preference. It is good for two weeks, and the physician is assured, through the association, that the government will pay him. If more than two weeks' medical attention is required the association issues a new certificate. The disabled worker pays for his medicines in the same way. The physician gives him a certificate on the drugist, and the latter is not allowed to charge more than the customer's station in life justifies.

"A ride on the governmental railways assures you absolute comfort and safety. They laugh at our 'spreading rail' and 'washout' accidents over here. The construction of German railways won't permit the rails to spread. And after a train passes over a certain stretch of track a walker follows along behind to see that all is safe before another train is allowed to use it.

"There is no political graft. The moment a man goes to work for the government he is disfranchised. He is under civil service, and he has a life time job if he gives good service, but the others do the voting.

"I met an American lawyer who resides there and rather marveled at his ability to make a living. I told him about it.

"I make a good living," he explained, "by telling Americans how to keep out of trouble. And I tell them if they take their cases to court they must expect exact justice. There is no chance for political influence and pull in the courts, as in America."—Kansas City Star.

THE LION AND THE MOUSE PLEASED LARGE AUDIENCE.

One of the best of the many good plays presented this season at the New Daytona theater was that of "The Lion and the Mouse" which entertained a good matinee crowd Saturday and drew one of the largest audiences of the season for the night performance.

The play itself is one that appeals directly to the American public as it deals with the situation which is now confronting the country in the very apparent control of public affairs by the moneyed powers and its excellent presentation by the United Play company brings it straight home to the audience and gives it a strong personal touch.

So uniformly well taken are the several parts, from those of the principal characters to the minor ones of Eudora and Jorkins, the maid and man servants, that from the lifting of the curtain until its fall on the final scene the audience is held in rapt attention. The serious aspect of the play is lightened and brightened by an undercurrent of wit and humor that relieves its serious features.

The three principal characters, John Burdett Ryder, the money king, his son, Jefferson Ryder, and Shirley Rossmore, the heroine of the play, were splendidly portrayed and the support throughout was excellent. Manager Speed is certainly keeping to his promise to supply only the best of shows obtainable this season and the increased attendance of late would indicate that his endeavors are being appreciated. This week will usher in the return of the popular Bell Boy Musical Comedy company for a run of four nights, commencing with a performance tonight.

TEN YEARS AGO.

The Florida East Coast railway was at that time placing a fence around the yard of the freight depot.

The Schantz ice plant was placed in successful operation for the first time Monday afternoon of that week.

Boone, the hypnotist and mind reader, gave a very creditable exhibition on the public street and in the opera house the previous Wednesday.

Frank Hatch resigned his position as station agent for the Florida East Coast railroad and was succeeded by William F. Jibb.

The Daytona Telephone company had just completed a line to Ormond and Moundgrove.

Nathan W. Pitts died at Palm Beach the week previous. He had come to Ormond 25 years before but moved to Palm Beach about ten years previous to his death, and purchased what is now known as Munyon's island. A number from Daytona attended the funeral, which was held at Ormond.

KELLY BACK DOING

STUNTS AS CONVICT

Kelly has informed the officers that Kelly had gone to Cuba.

The matter was turned over to the Federal authorities and the United States government wired the American minister at Havana to request the Cuban government to locate Kelly and place him under arrest. The wire was sent to Havana January 17 and January 19 Kelly was arrested in Santiago.

After his arrival in Cuba Kelly was going under the name of W. F. Shinnall and he did not imagine the officers were looking for him until a couple of small Cubans came up to him on the dredge boat January 13, one of them remarking, "Mr. Shinnall, we want you." Kelly says he looked down at the officer and looked straight into the muzzle of a gun. He turned to the other one and looked into another gun, so he decided the best thing to do was to go along with them. He was taken to the Santiago jail and held until the arrival of Detective Crawford with the necessary extradition papers.

Being held as a Federal prisoner a large amount of "red tape" was required before the proper papers could be made out for the return of Kelly to the United States and the prisoner says he was well treated by the Cubans while confined in the jail at Santiago and the prison in Havana.

Kelly was sentenced for life for the killing of W. C. Sellers, a special detective for the Atlantic Coast Line, at High Springs Aug. 8, 1906, shooting him with a gun loaded with buckshot. The railroad officials took an active part in the prosecution of Kelly and he was sentenced January 16, 1909. Kelly was formerly a member of the police force in Savannah and also the Jacksonville police force, during which service he killed a man several years ago.

He admits killing Sellers and tells a graphic story of the tragedy, in which he holds that the victim was the aggressor, having threatened his life in 1903 in Tampa as the result of a fight, when Sellers was a member of the Tampa police force.

Kelly appears to consider all phases of his escape and return to the convict camp as a joke—just a sort of vacation from his work. He seems to be perfectly contented since his return and has begun his labor with renewed vigor because of the rest he has had.

Detective Crawford took no chances with Kelly on the way back from Cuba, keeping the prisoner handcuffed, while the officer held firmly to the other end of the chain attached to the irons. It is probable Kelly would have attempted an escape if the smallest kind of an opportunity had been presented. He will be closely watched in the convict camp in future.

COUNTY COMMITTEE TO MEET TOMORROW.

The democratic county executive committee will meet at the county court house in DeLand tomorrow at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon, pursuant to a call issued by Chairman T. J. Sparkman and Secretary Grant Bly, to arrange for the publication of the call for the primary election April 30, and transact such other business as may properly come before the meeting.

JOHNNY AND ELLA GALVIN
— HERE FOR FOUR NIGHTS.
"A Bell Boy" musical comedy company in which Galvin, the clever young light comedian, who is like Geo. M. Cohan was five years ago, as the chief fun-maker, is billed for the attraction at the New Daytona theater four nights beginning tonight.
The productions as presented by Johnny and Ella Galvin are described as being a good deal the best and brightest thing in the way of musical comedies that has been produced to many years, abounding in funny songs, amusing incidents, beautiful scenes and catchy music.
Ella Galvin, whose singing and dancing is a never failing source of delight, is the star of the attraction, which, by the way, boasts of a genuine beauty chorus that can sing and dance as well as look pretty.
The productions are metropolitan in every sense of the word. The scenery, a 60 foot carload of it, is the work of the best artists in New York and the costumes are novel in design, gorgeous in color and most costly in material, while the mechanical and electrical effects are more sensational than ever seen outside of New York City.
The grand finale of the first act in "A Bell Boy" is a big, spectacular, patriotic ensemble number employing the entire strength of the company and accompanied by a brilliant series of electrical effects that are fairly dazzling in their sensationalism. It is appropriately called the "Spirit of '76." Another great electrical effect that is presented in "The Man Question" is the famous "Red Mill" scene introducing Ella Galvin leading a Dutch number from a practical twenty-foot red mill with gorgeously illuminated revolving fans. The company is carrying 30 people and nothing will be repeated during the entire engagement.

Ginseng.
The light yellow root of ginseng is highly esteemed by the Chinese as a stimulant. It is used, however, for almost every domestic and medicinal purpose, and specimens resembling the human body often command their weight in gold because of supposed occult virtues. China furnishes almost the sole market for ginseng.
